Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS

(SHRI KIREN RIJU)

(a) to (c): As per the available information, the State-wise details of communal incidents, persons killed/injured therein during the last three years i.e. 2012, 2013 and 2014 and during current year upto January, 2015 are enclosed as Annexure. "Public Order" and "Police" being State subjects under the Constitution of India, the responsibility of dealing with communal violence, setting up relief camps, provision of compensation and maintaining relevant data in this regard rests primarily with respective State Governments. Details like extent of damages to property, compensation to affected families, number of beneficiaries, persons displaced/rehabilitated, persons arrested or convicted and action taken against them etc., are not maintained centrally.

(d) to (e): To maintain communal harmony in the country, the Central Government assists the State Governments/ Union Territory Administrations in a variety of ways like sharing of intelligence, sending alert messages, sending Central Armed Police Forces, including the composite Rapid Action Force created specially to deal with communal situations, to the concerned State Governments on specific requests and in the modernization of the State Police Forces. In addition, the Central Government sends advisories in this regard from time to time. The Central Government has also circulated revised Guidelines to promote communal harmony to the States and Union Territories in 2008, which inter alia, laid down standing operating procedures to be put in place to deal with situation arising out of the communal violence. The activities of all organizations having a bearing on communal harmony in the country are under constant watch of the law enforcement agencies and requisite legal action is taken, wherever necessary.
