(b) if so, the details thereof during the last three years and the current year?

Answer

Minister of State in the Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances and Pensions and Minister of State in the Prime Minister's Office.
(DR. JITENDRA SINGH)

(a) & (b): The number of candidates with engineering/medical background vis-à-vis total candidates recommended by the UPSC for Civil Services Examination (CSE) in 2010, 2011 and 2012 are as given below:-

Year of CSE Examination	Total no. of recommended candidates	Recommended candidates with Bachelor or higher degree in Engineering	Recommended candidates with Bachelor or higher degree in medicine
-------------------------	-------------------------------------	--	---

2010	921	370	101
2011	999	459	142
2012	998	373	145

In so far as Civil Services Examination-2013 is concerned, the recommended candidates are received in two parts, i.e. Main List & Reserved List. The Reserved List is yet to be received from UPSC.
