(b) if so, the details thereof and if not, the reasons therefor;

(c) the basis on which the Government reviews the working of CBI in the absence of such information/data; and

(d) the measures taken by the Government in this regard?

Answer

Minister of State in the Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances and Pensions and Minister of State in the Prime Minister's Office.
(DR. JITENDRA SINGH)

(a)&(b): Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) conducts searches at various places from time to time during the investigation in accordance with law, depending upon requirement of the cases. Government does not interfere in the investigation of cases including searches/raids carried out by CBI.

(c)&(d): The Central Vigilance Commission (CVC) exercises superintendence over the functioning of the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI), in so far as it relates to investigation of offences alleged to have been committed under the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988. CVC takes regular review meetings with CBI from time to time in this regard.

Further, the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) furnishes month wise report on the working of the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI), wherein details of cases/number of cases registered by various wings of Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI), cases pending investigation, disposal of cases from investigation, charge-sheeted cases, disposal of cases from trial, conviction rates, to the Government. Regular meetings are convened under the chairmanship of officers of this Department from time to time with respect to various pending issues of Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI).
