L.S.US.Q.NO.2358 FOR 04.08.2015

- (d): the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in CWP No. 13029/85 M.C. Mehta Vs. UOI & Ors. has issued directions regarding plying of school buses in the NCT of Delhi. These directions were further incorporated in Delhi Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Rules, 1998.
- (e) to (f): The motor vehicles ferrying school children which are found violating the guidelines are regularly prosecuted by Delhi Police. The details of prosecution action and school buses impounded by Delhi Police during the last three years and the current year (upto 15.7.2015) are as under: -

Year Challaned Impounded 2012 7321 693 2013 3736 714 2014 2679 128 2015 (upto 15.07.2015) 1460 31

In addition to this, details of the number of school buses and school vans prosecuted/impounded by Transport Department of the NCT of Delhi during the financial years 2014-15 and 2015-16 (01.04.15 to 30.06.15) are as under: -

Year School Buses School Vans 2014-15 639 578 2015 (01.04.15 to 30.06.15) 94 61

(g): Delhi Police has taken various efforts to widely cover school children in road safety education. The staff of road safety cell of traffic police visit schools, display mobile exhibition van at important places and distribute pamphlets on Road Safety to various road users of Delhi. Film Shows for imparting road safety education are also organized for school children in various parts of Delhi. In addition to this, Delhi Police has requested Principals of various schools to designate one teacher as Road Safety Coordinator in every school in the NCT of Delhi for organisation of road safety programmes in schools to sensitize the children. During Delhi Police week, a workshop-cum-programme was organized wherein all the road safety coordinators were invited and trained by Delhi Police. Help of volunteers is also taken in regulation of traffic at important traffic junctions by providing help to senior citizens, children and physically challenged persons to cross the roads safely. Special drives are also conducted against the vehicles ferrying school children from time to time by the Transport Department of NCT of Delhi.
