Answer

MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT

(SMT. SMRITI ZUBIN IRANI)

(a) to (e): Yes Madam. The central institutions of higher learning established in the State of Maharashtra are: the Indian Institute of Technology (at Mumbai), the National Institute of Technology (at Nagpur), the Indian Institute of Science Education and Research (IISER) (at Pune) and the Indian Institute of Management (at Nagpur). All these institutions are fully funded by the Central Government. Two Indian Institutes of Information Technology (IIITs) are being set up at Pune and Nagpur in Public Private Partnership mode and they are expected to start functioning from 2016-17.
