- (c) whether the Government has received any complaint about the collection of capitation fee by the medical colleges, if so, the details thereof and the action taken by the Government thereon?

Answer

ANSWER
THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE
(SHRI FAGGAN SINGH KULASTE)

(a) to (c) As informed by Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT), separate centralized database in respect of searches conducted on medical institutions is not maintained by the Income Tax Department (ITD). They have also informed that, searches conducted during current and last financial year in the cases of certain persons running medical institutions have led to detection of various issues of tax evasion.

Disclosure of information in respect of specific assessees is prohibited except as provided under section 138 of the Income Tax Act, 1961.
