- (e) whether the Government also proposes to set up National Green Urban Mobility Fund (NGUMF) and if so, the details and purpose thereof?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT
(RAO INDERJIT SINGH)

(a) to (e): A green urban mobility scheme is being considered to promote urban mobility initiatives such as footpaths, cycle tracks, public bike sharing, bus rapid transit systems, intelligent transport systems, urban freight management; and progressively shift to usages of hybrid/electric and non-fossil fuels for public transport. The scheme requires extensive stakeholders' consultations before firming up the details including funding and coverage of cities.
