Answer

Minister of State in the Ministry of CIVIL AVIATION

(Shri Jayant Sinha)

- (a) & (b): At present, 26 airports are categorized as Hyper-sensitive airports, and majority of them are manned by the Central Industrial Security Force (CISF). Due to security reasons, no specific details regarding these airports can be placed in the public domain.;
- (c): Bureau of Civil Aviation Security (BCAS), which is the regulatory authority for civil aviation security in India, has not received any such inputs from Central Security Agency.;
- (d) & (e): No, Madam. However, BCAS has issued a letter to the CISF in this matter.;
- (f): The details of airports, State/UT-wise, that are not manned by CISF along with the name of the security agency manning them, are annexed.;
- (g): To address the issue of creation of Aviation Security Force, a study was conducted in 2011, through a Study Team of International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO), which inter alia recommended for creation of dedicated Aviation Security Force. Accordingly, a proposal for creation of Aviation Security Force was drafted and inter-ministerial consultations were done.
