ANSWER

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE

(SHRI FAGGAN SINGH KULASTE)

(a): The Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI), the nodal agency to regulate and monitor the manufacture, processing, distribution, sale and import of food, has notified the draft Food Safety and Standards (Organic Foods) Regulations, 2017 in the Gazette of India on 19.06.2017 and placed the draft regulations on its website on 22.06.2017 for inviting objections or suggestions from the persons likely to be affected thereby, within 30 days.

(b): The implementation and enforcement of Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006, Rules and Regulations thereunder primarily rests with the State/UT Governments. No separate data in respect of food and food products being sold with Organic labels is maintained centrally by FSSAI.

(c): Certification of organic produce is not done by FSSAI.

(d): Draft Food Safety and Standards (Organic Foods) Regulations, 2017 provide for Organic Food to comply with the standards of National Programme on Organic Production (NPOP) or Participatory Guarantee System (PGS-India) which cover the aspects related to certification of organic food items ensuring genuineness of the organic products being sold in the market.
