(a) to (d). Yes. The Antyodaya Anna Yojana (AAY) which was launched in December, 2000 for one crore families, to be identified from amongst the Below Poverty Line (BPL) families covered under TPDS, is being implemented in all the States and Union Territories of the Country. Coverage under the scheme has since been expanded thrice i.e. during 2003-04, 2004-05 and 2005-06, covering additional 50 lakh households each time. Thus, the total coverage under AAY stands at 2.50 crore families.

Under NFSA, AAY families are entitled to receive 35 Kg of foodgrains per family per month at a highly subsidized rate of Rs.3/2/1- per kg for rice, wheat and coarse grains respectively. The identification of AAY families, against the State/UT-wise allocated number of households, is the responsibility of the concerned State/UT, as per the criteria/guidelines issued by the Central Government. The criteria for identification of AAY families inter-alia, include, households headed by widows, terminally ill persons, disabled persons, primitive tribal households, eligible BPL families of HIV positive persons, marginal farmers etc. States/UTs wise details of total number of families covered under AAY are at Annexure-I.
