Answer

MINISTER OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI BIRENDER SINGH)

- (a) Details regarding Rural Self Employment Training Institutes (RSETIs) run under the National Rural Livelihood Mission across various districts of the country including Bihar, State/UT-wise- are given in Annexure.
- (b) No, Madam. The RSETIs are bank led institutes for which the land is to be allotted by the concerned State Government, free of cost, with nominal registration expenses. The Government of India would subsequently provide one time infrastructure grant of Rs.1 crore, when the intimation on undisputed possession of suitable land is made available by the concerned Bank. In situations where the land transfer is likely to take time due to lengthy procedures, the Banks start functioning immediately from hired premises.
- (c)& (d) Do not arise.
