Answer

MINISTER OF LAW & JUSTICE (SHRI D. V. Sadananda Gowda)

(a)&(b): Setting up of subordinate courts including Fast Track Courts (FTCs) for speedy trial of cases including those relating to crime against elderly persons and children in the country, is the responsibility of the respective State Governments. However, Government has requested the State Governments and High Courts to consider setting-up FTCs for disposal of cases relating to offences against women, children, differently abled persons, senior citizens and marginalized sections of society as resolved in the Conference of Chief Ministers and Chief Justices held on 7th April, 2013.

(c): While conviction orders in cases related to crime including crime against elderly persons and children are passed by trial courts in subordinate judiciary, such cases come to High Courts & the Supreme Court by way of appeal only. As per the reports published by National Crime Records Bureau, the victims of murder, culpable homicide not amount to murder, kidnapping & abduction aged above 50 years during the year 2010, 2011 and 2012 is indicated below:

Year Victims of murder, culpable homicide not amount to murder, kidnapping & abduction aged above 50 years
```

1 2 2012 4508 2011 4766 2010 4067

The cases reported and conviction rate in respect of crimes against children during the last three years are as under:

```
Year Number of Conviction cases rate reported

1 2 3
2013 58224 30.9
2012 38172 29.0
2011 33098 34.6

(d): Legislative provisions have been made by the Government for setting up of special courts for speedy trial of offences against children. Section 25 of the Commissions for Protection of Child Rights Act, 2005 provides that for the purpose of providing speedy trial of offences against children or of violation of child rights, the State Government may, with the concurrence of the Chief Justice of the High Court, by notifi- cation, specify at least a court in the State or specify, for each district, a Court of Session to be a Children's Court to try the said offence. Section 28(1) of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012 provides that for the purposes of providing a speedy trial, the State Government shall in consultation with the Chief Justice of the High Court, by notification in the Official Gazette, designate for each district, a Court of Session to be a Special Court to try the offences under the Act provided that if a Court of Session is notified as a Children's Court under the Commissions for Protection of Child Rights Act, 2005 or a Special Court designated for similar purposes under any other law for the time being in force, then, such court shall be deemed to be a Special Court under this section.
