

Need to protect the interests of workers engaged in the plantation industries—Laid.

SHRI VARKALA RADHAKRISHNAN (CHIRAYINKIL) : The Plantation industries are facing grave crisis. Tea, Cardamom and others hill produce are not being sold in the market. Many plantation industries have been locked out and workers have been thrown out of employment. I request the Minister for Industries to intervene in the matter and save lakhs of people from starvation.