Title : Further discussion on the motion for consideration of the constitution (One Hundred and Fifth Amendment) Bill, 2006 moved by Shri Sivraj V. Patil on the 17th May (Bill Passed).

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SHIVRAJ V. PATIL): Sir, this is a very simple Bill. It seeks to make certain provisions mandatory on the States of Chhattisgarh and Jharkhand and continue to have that mandatory provision with respect to Madhya Pradesh and delete Bihar from that mandatory provision.

Sir, at present Bihar is having only 0.9 percentage of the tribal population; Jharkhand is having 26.3 percentage of the tribal population; Chhattisgarh is having 31.8 percentage of the tribal population; and Madhya Pradesh continues to have 20.3 percentage of the tribal population.

Article 164 (1) of the Constitution provided that Bihar and Madhya Pradesh should have a Tribal Minister and this provision has been made mandatory. By moving this amendment and amending the Constitution, what is sought to be done is this. Bihar will not be bound by this mandatory provision of the Constitution. If Bihar wants to have a Tribal Minister, it can have but it is not mandatory that it should have a Tribal Minister, whereas Jharkhand and Chhattisgarh are not bound by this mandatory provision as per the existing provisions of the Constitution. With this amendment, Jharkhand and Chhattisgarh would be required to have a Tribal Minister in their Governments, and Madhya Pradesh continues to do that. Sir, this is the kind of an amendment which we are trying to introduce in the Constitution through this Constitution (Amendment) Bill.

Sir, there were two or three points which were raised by the hon. Members while discussing the provisions of this Bill. For the time being, it is not necessary to discuss those points because they relate to the de-limitation and they relate to declaring certain areas as scheduled areas. Those points are not relevant to this Bill and I would seek the indulgence and permission not to reply to those points now. When those points are raised in some other debate, the replies could be given to them.

Sir, I request that this amendment be accepted and this Constitution (Amendment) Bill be passed.

MR. SPEAKER: Hon. Members, before I put the motion for consideration to the vote of the House, I may inform the House that this being the Constitution (Amendment) Bill, voting has to be by Division.

Let the Lobbies be cleared -

Now, the Lobbies have been cleared.

I believe all the hon. Members by this time are aware of the procedure for voting and it need not be repeated again. If any hon. Member is new, he or she may ask or take the help of the Member sitting next to him or her.

The question is:

"That the Bill further to amend the Constitution of India, be taken into consideration."
