I am sure the House would join me in applauding all the 71 participating contingents from Commonwealth countries especially the Indian contingent for their splendid performance at the Commonwealth Games 2010 held in New Delhi from 3rd October to 14th October, 2010. I, on behalf of the House, congratulate all the sportsmen and sportswomen who have won medals for their country. I also congratulate sports persons who have participated in the Games in the true spirit of sportsmanship and friendship.

India was awarded 38 gold, 27 silver and 36 bronze medals in these Games, thereby crowning its sporting uppedented 104 medals by winning a n

It is a matter of great pride to observe that a majority of victorious sportspersons are from rural background. Women sportspersons too have proved their mettle in these Games by excelling in various disciplines.

I am sure that these Games will act as a catalyst in projecting our country as a sporting Nation and will motivate youngsters particularly those from small villages and towns to come out and participate in sporting events.
