INTRODUCTION

The Constitution of India, under articles 74 and 75, provides for a Council of Ministers. Article 74(1) reads that ‘there shall be a Council of Ministers with the Prime Minister as the head to aid and advise the President who, shall, in the exercise of his functions, act in accordance with such advice’. The Prime Minister is appointed by the President and the other Ministers are appointed by the President on the advice of the Prime Minister.

The Council of Ministers is drawn from both the Houses of Parliament. However, under article 75(3) of the Constitution, it remains collectively responsible to the House of the People, i.e. the Lok Sabha.

Normally, a person has to be a member of either House of Parliament to be a Minister. However, under the Constitution, there is no bar to the appointment of a person from outside the Parliament as a Minister. But such a person cannot continue as a Minister for more than six months unless he/she secures a seat in either House of Parliament (by election or nomination as the case may be). Article 75(5) states “A Minister who for any period of six consecutive months is not a member of either House of Parliament shall at the expiration of that period cease to be a Minister”. Some of the instances of non-MPs having been inducted into the Union Council of Ministers are Dr. Triguna Sen in 1966, Shri Shanti Bhushan in 1977, Justice H.R. Khanna and Shri S.N. Kacker in 1979, Shri Arjun Singh in 1985, Shri Bir Bahadur Singh in 1988, Shri Dinesh Goswami and Prof. M.G.K. Menon in 1989, Dr. Raja Ramanna in 1990, Dr. Manmohan Singh and Shri Sharad Pawar in 1991, Shri Yogendra K. Alagh and Shri Balwant Singh Ramoowalia in 1996 and Shri Arun Jaitley in 1999. Incidentally, Shri P.V. Narasimha Rao and Shri H.D. Deve Gowda were not members of Parliament at the time of their appointment as Prime Minister of India on 21 June 1991 and 1 June 1996, respectively.

The Constitution does not classify the members of the Council of Ministers into different ranks, viz. that of the Cabinet rank, that of the Minister of State rank and that of the Deputy Minister. All this has been done following the British practice and in view of administrative convenience. Section 2 of the Salaries and Allowances of Ministers Act, 1952, has, however, accorded legislative sanction to such classification in the Indian context. The Act defines ‘Minister’ as a Member of the Council of Ministers by whatever name called and includes a Deputy Minister.

The Cabinet Ministers are heads of their Ministries and are accountable to the Prime Minister and through him to the President and the Lok Sabha. The Ministers of State are of two categories: some of them are given Independent Charge of Ministries/Portfolios while others are attached to the Prime Minister/Cabinet Ministers for assisting them in the discharge of their Ministerial functions. There are also Deputy Ministers/Parliamentary Secretaries whose primary function is to assist their senior Ministers/Prime Minister.

This brochure is a compilation, in a compact and consolidated form, of the names of various Ministers and their portfolios from time to time since India's Independence and covers the period upto 28 August 2015. The name of each member of the Council of Ministers finds a place under the rank last held by him/her except that of Shri Gulzari Lal Nanda who has been included among the Prime Ministers. It may be noted that from 15 August 1947 to 26 May 2014, (the date of dissolution of the Council of Ministers), there have been 14 Prime Ministers, including an acting Prime Minister; seven Deputy Prime Ministers, (two of whom, viz. Shri Morarji Desai and Shri Charan Singh subsequently became Prime Ministers); 302 Cabinet Ministers; eight Ministers of Cabinet rank but who were not members of the Cabinet (these Ministers were of the same rank as that of the Ministers of State); 61 Ministers of State with independent charge; 323 Ministers of State attached to the Prime Minister/Cabinet Ministers and 69 Deputy Ministers.

Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, the first Prime Minister of India served in that capacity for the longest period of 16 years, 9 months and 13 days in an uninterrupted manner. Shri Atal Bihari Vajpayee, during his first tenure as Prime Minister from 16 May to 1 June 1996, had the shortest term so far of only 17 days. Among others, Shri Gulzari Lal Nanda served as acting Prime Minister for two brief terms of 14 days each: first from 27 May to 9 June 1964 and again from 11 January to 24 January 1966. Shrimati Indira Gandhi had the distinction of being the first and so far the only lady to assume the office of the Prime Minister of India. She remained Prime Minister first for a period of 11 years and two months – from 24 January 1966 to 24 March 1977 and later from 14 January 1980 to 31 October 1984 for 4 years, 9 months and 18 days. As regards others, Shri Morarji Desai served as Prime Minister for 2 years, 4 months and 5 days (from 24 March 1977 to 28 July 1979) and Shri Charan Singh held the office for 6 months and 18 days (from 28 July 1979 to 14 January 1980); Shri Rajiv Gandhi for 5 years, 1 month and 2 days (from 31 October 1984 to 2 December 1989); Shri Vishwanath Pratap Singh for 11 months and 8 days (from 2 December 1989 to 10 November 1990); Shri Chandra Shekhar for 7 months and 11 days (from 10 November 1990 to 21 June 1991); and Shri P.V. Narasimha Rao for 4 years, 10 months and 26 days (from 21 June 1991 to 16 May 1996). Shri Atal Bihari Vajpayee was succeeded by Shri H.D. Deve Gowda, as the 12th Prime Minister of India on 1 June 1996. Shri H.D. Deve Gowda remained in office for 10 months and 20 days (from 1 June 1996 to 21 April 1997) while his successor Shri I.K. Gujral stayed for 10 months and 28 days (from 21 April 1997 to 19 March 1998).

During his second tenure as Prime Minister, Shri Atal Bihari Vajpayee remained in office for 1 year, 6 months and 24 days from 19 March 1998 to 13 October 1999 and in his third term Shri Vajpayee held the office from 13 October 1999 to 22 May 2004.

Dr. Manmohan Singh in his first term as Prime Minister assumed the office on 22 May 2004 and held the office upto 22 May 2009. During his second term Dr. Manmohan Singh held the office from on 22 May 2009 to 26 May 2014.

Among the Cabinet Ministers, Shri Jagjivan Ram served as such for the longest period of 32 years except for a brief interregnum of one month and 26 days. On the other hand, Justice H.R. Khanna had the briefest ever tenure as a Union Minister which lasted only for five days from 30 July to 3 August 1979 when he resigned from the Council of Ministers headed by Shri Charan Singh.

Changes/reshuffles are effected in the Union Council of Ministers from time to time by the Prime Ministers. During the Prime Ministership of Shri Rajiv Gandhi, there were 36 occasions when changes, including six major reshuffles, were effected in the Council of Ministers. During the second tenure of Smt. Indira Gandhi as Prime Minister from January 1980 to October 1984, there were 28 changes in the Council of Ministers which included 8 major reshuffles. Her first tenure as Prime Minister from 24 January 1966 to 24 March 1977 had changes on as many as 39 occasions, including 8 major reshuffles. Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru's entire tenure had 63 occasions of changes, including 8 major reshuffles. Shri Lal Bahadur Shastri as Prime Minister made 10 changes, including one major reshuffle in his Council of Ministers. Shri Morarji Desai as Prime Minister effected 10 changes including 4 major reshuffles, and Shri Charan Singh during his tenure as Prime Minister made 6 changes, including 2 major reshuffles. One change each was made during the tenure of Shri V.P. Singh and Shri Chandra Shekhar. During the tenure of Shri P.V. Narasimha Rao, nine changes, including three major reshuffles, were effected in the Council of Ministers.

The first brief tenure of Shri Atal Bihari Vajpayee as Prime Minister saw one Ministerial change while during his second tenure Shri Vajpayee effected 7 changes, including 2 reshuffles. During the Prime Ministership of Shri Deve Gowda there were four changes, including one major reshuffle, while Shri I.K. Gujral, during his Prime Ministership, effected two changes in the Council of Ministers. The third tenure of Shri Vajpayee as Prime Minister witnessed 19 changes, including 14 reshuffles.

During the first tenure of Dr. Manmohan Singh as Prime Minister, there were 29 occasions when changes, including two major reshuffles, were effected in the Council of Ministers. The second tenure of Dr. Manmohan Singh as Prime Minister witnessed 36 changes, including 3 reshuffles.

The Council of Ministers in India functioned as a two-tier one for the first time during the Prime Ministership of Shri Morarji Desai from 14 August 1977 to 28 July 1979. Similarly, Shri Rajiv Gandhi promoted all Deputy Ministers as Ministers of State and made the Council of Ministers a two-tier one during his tenure. Incidentally, the Council of Ministers headed by Shri P.V. Narasimha Rao, after the reshuffle effected in September 1995, was also a two-tier one. The Council of Ministers headed by Shri Atal Bihari Vajpayee in his first tenure had eleven Cabinet Ministers only. The Council of Ministers during the Prime Ministership of Shri H.D. Deve Gowda and Shri I.K. Gujral and during Shri Vajpayee's second and third tenures was a two-tier one. The Council of Ministers headed by Dr. Manmohan Singh, during his first and the continuing second tenure is also a two-tier one.
