

MR. SPEAKER: Will you allow me to say something which I want to say? Well, the matter is delicate and complicated. It needs your attention and patience also. Only if you speak out one after the other, what you say can be heard. Now you have a statement here. I am sure that there would be occasions on which you would be able to express your views. Now that the statement is here, allow me to proceed to the other business. Then, there would be another occasion for you to consider it.

(Interruptions)

MR. SPEAKER: Please study the statement carefully and form your opinion. On 15th and 16th, you will have the opportunity to speak.

[Translation]

SHRIRAM VILASPASWAN: Everything will be over by 15th and 16th.....(Interruptions).....We would like to know action has been taken by the Central Government?.....(Interruptions).....Just now the hon. Minister of Home Affairs said in the statement that the construction is in violation of the Court's order because it is in progress in the acquired land.....(Interruptions)
