- (e) the number of corruption cases coming to the notice of the Government under the said preventive system during the last three years and the action taken by the Government in this regard?

ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT

(DR. SATYA PAL SINGH)

(a) to (c): A total of 10423 technical institutes have been approved by All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) during the academic year 2018-19. The State-wise details of technical institutes approved by AICTE during the last three academic years is at Annexure-1 and the details of the technical institutes, who have not adhered to the rules laid down by the AICTE during the last three years is at Annexure-2.

(d) and (e): Approval is granted by AICTE to new institutions and also to the existing institutions for extension, who apply and fulfill the norms and standards as prescribed in Approval Process Handbook (APH), published by AICTE every year. A total of 167 complaints against various Institutes/Colleges have been received during the last three years for violation of norms and standards of AICTE. Accordingly, penal action has been taken against these erring institutes by AICTE as per provisions of the APH.
