STATEMENT RE: JAWAHAR ROZGAR
YOJANA

[English]

THE PRIME MINISTER (SHRI RAJIV GANDHI): Mr. Deputy-Speaker, Sir, there is no problem before the country so acute as the problem of the unemployment and under-employment. There is no segment of our population more disadvantaged than the rural poor. There is no section of our people as much in need as women from poor rural families, especially those with no land of their own.

It was from Jawaharlal Nehru that we learned that our first national duty is to work for the elimination of poverty. It was from Jawaharlal Nehru too that we learned that the greatest national endeavour is to mitigate the distress of the unemployed and underemployed masses of rural India.

Therefore, there is no greater tribute we could pay to the founder-architect of our modern nationhood than to dedicate our celebrations of his birth centenary to a programme of providing massive employment to the poor in rural India.

Sir, we are today launching the Jawahar Rozgar Yojana.

It is a programme aimed at placing in the hands of village panchayats around the country adequate funds to run their own rural employment schemes in the interests of the vast masses of the rural poor who constitute the bulk of rural India. It has been estimated that in the last seven years, rural employment programmes have reached only 55 per cent of the village panchayats around the country. The Jawahar Rozgar Yojana aims at reaching every single panchayat.

Central assistance will finance 80 per cent of the programmes. In its very first year of operation, that is the current fiscal year, Central assistance for this programme will amount to Rs. 2100 crores. We are so structuring the finances that funds will be allocated to States in proportion to the size of their population which falls below the poverty line. The further devolution of these funds to districts will be determined in terms of criteria of backwardness such as the share of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes in the total population of the district, the proportion of agricultural labour to total labour, and the level of agricultural productivity. Special consideration will be given to meeting the requirements of geographically distinctive areas such as hills, deserts and islands.

It is our expectation that, on an average, a village panchayat with a population of three thousand to four thousand people will receive between Rs. 80,000 and Rs. one lakh a year to implement the Jawahar Rozgar Yojana. We expect to be able to provide employment to at least one member of each poor rural family for fifty to a hundred days a year at a workplace near his residence. We hope to incorporate into the programme integrated schemes to provide employment to nomadic tribes. A very special feature of the scheme is that 30 per cent of the employment generated will be reserved for women.

Through the devolution of this programme to village panchayats, we expect the benefits of this programme directly reaching the people to be significantly higher than in the past. Thus far, too large a proportion of funds for such programmes has gone to contractors and intermediaries. There have also been other leakages. Besides, there is scope for economizing on the costs of administration.

By devolving the finances to the Panchayats, and entrusting to them the administration of the programme, we expect a much larger proportion of the funds than ever before to be deployed on the programme itself.

We also expect the implementation of the programme to be more open, more transparent than ever before. Every villager will know how much money is available for the programme and which are the schemes being financed. He will also know who are his fellow-villagers being employed on the schemes. Each beneficiary getting employment will know how much remuneration he is receiving and others are receiving, as also how many days of work he is being given and others are being given. Those who are cheated or deprived will not only have the possibility of demanding immediate redress, they will also have in their hands the ultimate weapon of the vote to turn out of office any panch or sarpanch who abuses the powers and responsibilities devolved on him. Democracy will reinforce opportunity to bring the Welfare State to the doorstep of the villager, where he lives and seeks work. For, as Jawaharlal Nehru said:

"Panchayats and village communities, should make their proposals. We can no longer function merely from the top, for we have to organise cooperatively the millions of our people and make them partners and sharers in these great undertakings."

Panditji urged us to remember that:

"Whatever plan we might make, the test of its success is how far it brings relief to the millions of our people who live on a bare subsistence level, that is the good and advancement of the masses of our people. Every other interest must be subordinated to this primary consideration..."

He added:

"Unemployment, on a large scale, casts a blight on many young lives and is one of our major problems. We cannot remove it by some magic... But we should be able to guarantee employment and work to anyone who is prepared to work hard and is not disdainful of manual labour."

That remains our ultimate goal. For the present, we are doing as much as our resources permit. All existing rural wage employment programmes stand merged into the Jawahar Rozgar Yojana. The Yojana will reach out all over the country to the 440 lakh families in rural India living below the poverty line. We aim to touch each one of these families. We aim to alleviate something of the hardship which these families face. In particular, we aim to mitigate the distress which the women of these families have faced for centuries with their legendary courage and fortitude. And we aim to secure these noble ends through the noble institution of the panchayats.

Sir, in the name of Jawaharlal Nehru, that great freedom fighter and builder of modern India, we rededicate ourselves to ending the curse of unemployment, eliminating the blight of poverty, dismantling discrimination against women, and assuring for all our people opportunity and assistance in leading a full and fulfilling life.

Thank you, Sir.

[English]

SHRI SRIBALLAV PANIGRAHI (Deogarh): I rise to support the Finance Bill wholeheartedly. As we all know, this year's Budget is pre-poor and people's budget. We are presently at the last stage of the consideration of the Budget. It is unfortunate that this year only three Demands could be discussed. The opposition has to be blamed for that because on their insistence discussion on
