

matter. But the Maharashtra Government is demanding one thing and the Finance Ministry is deciding in the other way.

(Interruptions)

SHRI BALRAM JAKHAR: I have told you. There is not much now to do.

(Interruptions)

SHRI RAM KAPSE: I would request that if a meeting of the Finance Minister, the Agriculture Minister and the interested MPs is arranged in the next two days, that will help because in January, you are expecting the World Bank loan.

(Interruptions)

SHRI BALRAM JAKHAR: You need not worry about that now. I have told you.

SHRI RAM KAPSE: Maharashtra Government wants us to worry.

SHRI BALRAM JAKHAR: There is no question of any profit making from the Maharashtra Government to the Central Government or otherwise. They are part of the same. We will do whatever is best for the people. That is what the Finance Minister has assured. You can also talk to him. There is no problem in that.

(Interruptions)

SHRI PRITHVIRAJ D. CHAVAN (Karad): Madam, Koyna is another major centre of earthquake in Maharashtra. Will the Government consider installing modern telecommunication facilities and wireless telecommunication facilities at Koyna and at Tantulikhurd which have been experiencing serious earthquakes even after the main earthquake at Marathwada? There is none at the moment.

SHRI BALRAM JAKHAR: We will take care of it. (Interruptions)
