MR. DEPUTY-SPEAKER: You may write to me. You may write to me. You may write to me about that.

Hon. Members I have permitted everyone but if at one and the same time every hon. Member gets up then I am not able to hear. As a matter of fact yesterday when I had said about Adivasis something, it was not heard by my colleagues here. Therefore, the whole trouble started. Mr. Lakkappa wants to say something.

(Interruptions)

**Not recorded.

MR. DEPUTY-SPEAKER: Please sit down. As a matter of fact yesterday it is in the proceedings. I had said but it was not heard. It was not heard by some people. Therefore, when you want to say something then you must get up one by one and you must convince me. When one is getting up then the others may sit down. Otherwise how can I hear? You must cooperate and help me. Now I am allowing everyone. Yesterday the complaint was that I was not allowing anyone. But I am not able to hear what Shri Basu or Shri Lakkappa says. Therefore, there should be some order.

SHRI INDRAJIT GUPTA (Basirhat): Please hear us one by one.

MR. DEPUTY-SPEAKER: I have allowed all today. Therefore, I would make an appeal to you. I have made my observations. Everything I have done. Therefore, let us go to the next item. We shall now take up the next item. The other thing can be taken up tomorrow with your cooperation. I have already said about it. I have already made my observation. Now, with your cooperation, let us proceed. Tomorrow is Friday, it is a good day.
