

[Shri Vayalar Ravi] the President may, by order suspend the operation of all or any of the provisions of this Act for such period as he thinks fit and make such incidental and consequential provisions as may appear to him to be necessary or expedient for administering the Union Territory in accordance with the provisions of Article 239'

What does Art. 239 of the Constitution say? It says this. There are two kinds of Union Territories. One is, Goa, Pondicherry and so on. The other is, Lakshadweep and so on. One is elected assembly and the other is where there is direct control. What does Article 356 of the Constitution say? Sir, may I read out Art. 356?

SHRI VAYALAR RAVI: Article 356 of the Constitution says this:

'If the "President, on receipt of a report from the Governor of a State or otherwise, is satisfied that a situation has arisen in which the government of the State cannot be carried on in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution, the President may, by proclamation

(a) assume to himself all or any of the functions of the Government of the State.

Under sub-clause (3) of the same Article the proclamation 'shall' be laid before each House of Parliament' and it will cease to operate if it is not approved by them within two months. So, is obligatory this under-sub-clause (3) it is obligatory on the part of the Government to place it before the House.

MR. DEPUTY-SPEAKER: Please take your seat. I have understood your point. You say about States like Goa, Pondicherry etc. There are States like Mizoram. This does not apply. But even so, there are certain precedents where they have been laid on the Table of the House. I hope the Government will lay it on the Table of the House during the course of the day or the next day.
