[Shri Pabitra Mohan Pradhan]

stopped. In our State, the Chief Minister was very Gandhian, and he had to stop it, but I objected strongly. I said: "If you stop toddy tapping, the income of a particuyou stop lar set of people. Unless you make alternative arrangements for these families, you should not do it."

But they did it and the people complained after three or four years again that this toddy tapping in some form or other was allowed to be done. So, I say that while the Minister would operate the Act. he should look to the socio-economic condition and he should at least make some allowances in this regard. With these words, I resume my seat.
