Foreign Collaborations

*171. SHRI SURESH KODIKKUNNIL:
Will the Minister of INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) how many technical or other foreign collaborations in the industrial fields was entered into since 1st December, 1989;

(b) the broad terms and conditions of these collaborations; and

(c) the estimated outflow of foreign exchange per year as a result of these collaborations?

THE MINISTER OF INDUSTRY (SHRI AJIT SINGH): (a) During the period 1st December, 1989 to 31st July, 1990, a total of 465 foreign collaboration approvals were granted, including 145 approvals involving foreign investment.

(b) The terms and conditions of approvals inter-alia include the extent of foreign equity participation, amount of fees payable for transfer of technology in the form of technical know-how, engineering, drawing and design and consultancy, extent of royalty payments, export commitment to be undertaken, the extent of indigenisation to be achieved, the period of collaboration agreement etc. as applicable to individual proposals

(c) Foreign collaboration approvals are issued with a validity of two years, and within this period the entrepreneurs are required to finalise the foreign collaboration agreement. The lumpsum payable for technical know-how, drawings, designs, documentation, erection and commissioning, etc. is normally allowed to be remitted to the foreign collaborator in three standard instalments, the first 1/3rd after the agreement is filed with the Reserve Bank of India and capital goods clearance, if any, is obtained, the second 1/3rd on delivery of technical documentation, and the third and final 1/3rd on the commencement of commercial production or four years after the agreement is filed with the Reserve Bank of India, whichever is earlier. The payment of royalty is linked to establishment of commercial production. Remittance of profits and dividends, wherever applicable, is made if and when profits are earned and dividends declared. In view of the staggered nature of the various payments involved, it will not be possible to indicate at this stage any definite estimate of the year-wise outflow of foreign exchange in respect of the approvals granted during the period in question.
