circulation, Government do not consider that any useful purpose will be served now by continuing to treat this part of the Report as secret. I am, therefore, laying it on the Table of the House."

So, the entire matter has been in cirsulation in the country; everybody knows about it, I do not think that Government will take the plea of secrecy in this and I hope that Government will make a copy of the report available suo motu.

Some hos. Members rose-

Mr. Speaker: Should we have a whole debate on this?

Shri S. M. Banerjee: I want to know only one thing, Sir.

Shri K. K. Nayar (Bahraich): I stood up much before.

Shri S. Ms. Banerjee: This is for the 18th time that I am standing.

Mr. Speaker: Mr. Banerjee is always on his lags.

Shri K. K. Nayar: I may be heard first.

Mr. Speaker: All right.

Shri K. K. Nayar: My purpose is not to hinder the proceedings, or obstruct the proceedings; I only want to assist you. One question which arises in this context is this. The learned Law Minister raised certain legal points. Naturally you wanted to hear him; that is correct. He raised some legal points; he is an excellent exponent of this point of view. But the points that he has raised are such on which perhaps further contribution should be invited from the other members of the House. For instance, he said that Government claims a pririlege on this question. Government is always a claimant of privileges. but the question of privilege will be lecided by you. A privilege will not be claimed in a blanket manner without assigning any reason that could be examined by you. If the plea is that it is not in public interest, the examination of that plea should be possible by you and the decision will be given by you. Merely to say that it is not in public interest . . . (Interruptions).

An hon. Member: That was not the plea.

Shri K. K. Nayar: The privilege was claimed all along on the ground that it was not in public interest. You must have a chance of examining what public interest would be injured or damaged by the revelation of the facts in that report. That is the first question.

The second point is this. The learned Minister for Home Affairs was pleased to say that this was a Cabinet matter....

Mr. Speaker: Is he going to analyse the whole thing?

Shri K. K. Nayar; No. Sir, I was just....

Mr. Speaker: What else is he doing now? No. no.

Now, papers to be laid on the Table. (Interruptions). I would not give a ruling now. How can I? I will give on Monday.

Shri S. M. Banerjee: Before you give your ruling, kindly give me a chance, Sir, That is my request.
