

[Shri Y.B. Chavan]

out if there is a possibility of an agreed solution.

श्री हुकम चन्द कछबाय : क्या तब तक यह सरकार रहेगी ?

SHRI P. K. DEO : He was a great martyr who belonged to our party and he made biggest sacrifice for a cause which was so dear to him. Is it not criminal procrastination on the part of the Government to thus allow the loss of a valuable life ? For how long has this question been hanging fire after she took responsibility for settling this question ? It has been disgraceful on the part of the Prime Minister. She is playing with fire, especially in Punjab which has suffered first during parity as a frontier State and now again, by division into Punjab and Haryana. So much bad blood is being created between the people of these two States. It reminds me of village touts who try to instigate innocent parties to quarrel among themselves so that they can profit from both. Similarly, the Prime Minister has at the time of Presidential election given an assurance to both parties that the issue of Chandigarh would be decided in favour of each of the two parties.

Now, I would like to know if by having this dead-line shifted till February, there is any apprehension that there may be more loss of life. Secondly, it is a matter of concern that the ashes of Pherumanji have been sealed by the police and his relatives are not permitted to dispose of the ashes according to the last desire of Pheruman. I want an assurance from the Home Minister that the ashes would be released to the relatives of Pheruman.

MR. SPEAKER: Questions only relating to Chandigarh need be answered.

SHRI Y. B. CHAVAN : As far as the ashes are concerned, I have personally no detailed information. I shall certainly take up the matter with the Punjab Government. Otherwise, the hon. Member has not asked me any question as such.

SHRI RANGA (Srikakulam) : He asked about sticking to your date, that has been indicated, in view of the fact that the Government has failed to stick to its earlier date which was October 2nd.

SHRI Y. B. CHAVAN : We had not given any time or date before. This is the first time that the Government has given any indication of the time as such. I will read that sentence again so that you can see what the Government's intentions are. I do not want to go on adding interpretations to what I have said. I have already made a very categorical statement. I have said that our approach to this matter is such that the Government will continue its efforts to find out an agreed solution. "In any case a decision will be taken and announced before the budget session or Parliament." I think it is very clear.

SHRIMATI SUCHETA KRIPALANI (Gonda) : Before the session commences, or when ?

SHRI Y. B. CHAVAN : Before it commences.
