

श्री श्रीकार लाल बेरवा (कोटा) : हमने आज भी लिखकर दिया है, दो दिन पहले भी लिखकर दिया था।

SHRI S. M. BANERJEE : If you will kindly allow me, I will explain to you that I am not out of order. The procedure is this. Certain rules are laid on the Table of the House. If the Member feels(Interruption)

MR. SPEAKER : You have a right to discuss the rules. If there is something wrong with them, you can ask for time and discuss them, but cannot ask supplementaries on it now. If Shri Banerjee asks one question, what prevents the House from asking other questions ?

SHRI S. M. BANERJEE : I am vigilant; they are not.

MR. SPEAKER : The moment you start, they will pick it up.

SHRI S. M. BANERJEE : If certain rules regarding the police are laid on the Table of the House, am I not within my right to ask what about rules for other categories ?

MR. SPEAKER : You can ask for time for a discussion if there is something wrong with them, but you cannot put questions now and make it again a Question Hour. Certainly that has not been the practice. If there is something wrong with the rules, you have a right to bring it to the notice of the Chair saying, "This rule is wrong; I want a discussion on this", but you cannot convert this into a Question Hour.

SHRI NAMBIAR (Tiruchirapalli) : Sir, about the procedure.....

MR. SPEAKER : Order, order.
