STATEMENT RE. BANARAS HINDU
UNIVERSITY INQUIRY
COMMITTEE REPORT

THE MINISTER OF EDUCATION AND YOUTH SERVICES (DR. V.K.R.V. RAO): As the House is aware, the President, in this capacity as the Visitor of the Banaras Hindu University, appointed in December 1968 a Committee of Inquiry under the Chairmanship of Dr. P.B. Gajendragadkar to enquire into the state of unrest and agitation in the University and to make recommendations for remedying the situation. The Committee submitted its Report to the Visitor on the 12th July, 1969 and has suggested remedies of a far-reaching character.

The Committee has divided its recommendations in two categories. The first is directed to help to introduce on the University campus an atmosphere of normalcy so as to enable the University community to pursue its legitimate functions without disturbance and disruption, violence or threat of it. The other set of recommendations are of a long range character and envisage a comprehensive reform of the structure and functioning of the University with special reference to the maintenance of its all India character.

For immediate implementation, the recommendation made by the Committee is that the Act under which Banaras Hindu

University is at present administered should be amended. The present bodies, including the Standing Committee of the Academic Council, responsible for the administration of the University should be dissolved and appropriate steps taken to provide for a "nominated" Executive Council, a "nominated" Court, and a new Vice-Chancellor. The Committee had also stated that it was desirable that its recommendation should be implemented, if possible, before the University reopened after summer vacation. As these recommendations involved important and substantial changes, it was considered necessary to bring them before Parliament. It was decided that, in the meanwhile, an ordinance may be promulgated empowering the Visitor to postpone the date of reopening of the University to avoid any disturbance on the University campus while Parliament considered the necessary legislative measures for bringing about normalcy in the University. The said Ordinance was duly promulgated on 17th July, 1969 and the Visitor issued a Direction to the Vice-Chancellor on the 19th July to postpone the date of reopening of the University from the 28th July to the 1st September, 1969.

Government will be bringing before Parliament a Bill for the amendment of Banaras Hindu University Act during the current session, and I hope, with the cooperation of this Hon'ble House and the other House, it will be possible to put the legislation on the Statute Book fairly quickly. With your permission, Sir, I am laying on the Table of the House a copy of the Report of the Inquiry Committee in order that the Members of this House may be acquainted with the conclusions reached by the Committee and the remedies suggested by it. [Placed in Library. See No. LT—1476/69]

This will enable the House to appreciate the reasons why Government have decided to introduce a Bill for the amendment of the Banaras Hindu University Act.

I may add that the Vice-Chancellor of the University, while disagreeing with the findings of the Committee, has nevertheless decided to resign his post as Vice-Chancellor, as he does not want to stand in the way of bringing normalcy to the University. He is going on leave as from today and has asked that his resignation becomes effective
