SCHEDULED CASTES AND SCHEDULED TRIBES ORDERS (AMENDMENT) BILL

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI K. BRAHMANANDA REDDY): I beg to move:

"That the Bill to provide for the inclusion in, and the exclusion from, the lists of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes, of certain castes and tribes, for the re-adjustment of representation of parliamentary and assembly constituencies in so far as such re-adjustment is necessitated by such inclusion or exclusion and for matters connected therewith, be taken into consideration."

As the hon. Members are aware, the question of revising the lists of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes has been under consideration for many years. In 1965 the Lokur Committee was appointed to go into the matter and make suggestions for a comprehensive revision of the lists. The recommendations of this Committee were examined by the Government and discussions were held in 1966 with hon. Members of Parliament and State Ministers belonging to Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes. Thereafter, the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes Orders (Amendment) Bill, 1967 was introduced in Lok Sabha and referred to a Joint Committee. The Bill, as reported by the Joint Committee, was taken up for consideration by the Lok Sabha. However, on account of some controversies, consideration of the Bill was held over and the Bill finally lapsed with the dissolution of the Lok Sabha in December 1970.

Article 341 of the Constitution relates to castes being specified by notification with respect to any State or Union Territory as Scheduled Castes in relation to that State or Union Territory. Similarly, article 342 relates to notification of specified tribes with respect to any State or Union Territory as Scheduled Tribes in relation to that State or Union Territory, as the case may be. A major difficulty experienced by several communities arose from the fact that in some States they are at present scheduled only in a part of the State, and not in respect of the entire State, with the result that the benefits, concessions and reservations available to Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes are confined only to a particular, and at times narrow geographical area, in the State. For example, in the Vidarbha area of Maharashtra, there are
