MATTER UNDER RULE 377

ALLEGED MALTREATMENT OF POLITICAL PRISONERS

SHRI H. N. MUKERJEE (Calcutta—North-East): With your permission, I should like to raise a matter to which Government's attention should be very seriously drawn and that is the recent occurrence of a string of incidents like, for example, the hunger strike of more than 100 political prisoners in Midnapore jail demanding the status of political prisoners. And that is happening along with events elsewhere, namely, the arrest of a large number of people including some writers, particularly poets in Andhra Desa for allegations related to revolutionary activities and the delay in the prosecution of a conspiracy case which has been started at Visakhapatnam where revolutionaries of all kinds from Andhra Pradesh, West Bengal and Orissa had been kept together in order to answer certain charges in regard to subversion and all that sort of thing. I have tried to raise this matter to elucidate Government's response to this because I discover there is a kind of atrophy of conscience in regard to the treatment of political prisoners.

In regard to the Bengal matter, the Midnapore hunger strike of more than 100 political prisoners, it is a good thing that national professor Satyendra Bose, one of our great scientists has led a protest against this sort of Government treatment, but all over the place accusations of this sort are pouring in. I have here letters from parents of people who are in jail in West Bengal and there they tell us about their children being treated so badly that they told them at interview time that they would be compelled to commit suicide and that sort of thing. This is the kind of letter which I have received and which I would pass on to the Prime Minister and the Home Ministry. But my point in raising this is largely on account of law and order being a State subject purely, we are
