SHRI JYOTIRMOY BOSU (Diamond Harbour): Sir, I have given notice...

MR. SPEAKER: I have nothing before me. Mr. S. M. Banerjee. I am not permitting any one except Mr. S. M. Banerjee. Mr. Jyotirmoy Bosu, you cannot force yourself on me like this. I am not allowing you. How can you suddenly get up and raise any matter like this? I have called only Mr. S. M. Banerjee. You cannot coerce the Chair. You cannot force me. I have allowed already one motion. As for the others I will see if they are within the competence of this Parliament to be brought. You suddenly come up and bring something here; I have no time to examine while I am conducting the business of the House. I receive hundreds of such Motions and I must study them.

I will examine whether it is within the proper jurisdiction of this Parliament or not.

SHRI JYOTIRMOY BOSU: Meanwhile, let the Home Minister collect the information.

MR. SPEAKER: I cannot give any ruling I will have to examine. If there is anything for him, I will ask the Home Minister about it. If the Home Minister is not concerned, I will not ask him. I will have to see that. (Interruptions).

Please do not interrupt me while I am conducting the proceedings You say something when I am sitting here. I have to conduct the proceedings. At present no matter is before me. I will never get exercised. You also do not get exercised. Everything is being shown as being exercised. You are showing that you are very much exercised. I know it and you know it. You
