THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENTS OF EDUCATION AND CULTURE (SHRIMATI SUSHILA ROHATGI) : (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) & (c) A statement is given below.

Statement

(b) The Central Hindi Directorate is operating a scheme of teaching Hindi through correspondence courses to all the non-Hindi speaking Indians and foreigners. This facility is also available to the people of Sikkim. The Directorate also conducts correspondence courses for coaching in Hindi for those IAS candidates of north-eastern states/union territories who opt for Hindi as a compulsory paper on Indian language. Last year 4 candidates from Sikkim availed of this facility. Under one of its extension programmes, a teacher from Gangtok Senior Secondary School, Sadam, was invited to participate in the neo-Hindi writers' workshop held at Hyderabad/Madras.

Under the scheme of free distribution of Hindi books in non-Hindi speaking areas, Hindi books are being sent to a Kendriya Vidyalaya, Gangtok for the last many years.

All the above schemes being operated by Central Hindi Directorate are advertised every year through the leading newspapers and AIR Gangtok.

(c) While there is no such proposal at present, Government of India would be willing to consider favourably suggestion in this behalf made either by the State Govt. of Sikkim or by any competent voluntary organisation.
