

[Mr. Speaker]

in the House casts a reflection on another Member, in this case, Mr. Fernandes”.

The procedure that is generally followed in such cases is that the Editor of the concerned newspaper is asked to state what he has to say in the matter for the consideration of the House, in the first instance. If the House agrees, this procedure may also be followed in the present case and the Editor of the Hindustan Times may be asked to state what he has to say in the matter for the consideration of the House. Then I will take a decision as to what we should do after we get a reply.
