in the House casts a reflection on another Member, in this case, Mr. Fernandes”.

The procedure that is generally followed in such cases is that the Editor of the concerned newspaper is asked to state what he has to say in the matter for the consideration of the House, in the first instance. If the House agrees, this procedure may also be followed in the present case and the Editor of the Hindustan Times may be asked to state what he has to say in the matter for the consideration of the House. Then I will take a decision as to what we should do after we get a reply.

STATEMENT RE. NON-PROLIFERATION OF NUCLEAR WEAPONS

The Minister of External Affairs (Shri M. C. Chagla): The General Assembly by its Resolution 1722 (XVI) appointed an Eighteen-Nation Disarmament Committee, of which India is a member. The General Assembly recommended that the Committee should undertake negotiations with a view to reaching agreement on general and complete disarmament under effective international control.

As the Honourable Members are aware, the Eighteen-Nation Disarmament Committee (ENDC), which in reality is a Seventeen-Nation Committee because of the absence of France, has been meeting in Geneva since 1962. Various measures collateral to the question of disarmament have been discussed in the Committee, and one of these is non-proliferation of nuclear weapons. The ENDC has been giving particular attention to this subject since 1964, as it is recognised as a matter of some urgency.

Discussions in the Committee have revealed important differences of opinion, firstly, among the nuclear weapon powers themselves, and, secondly, bet-
