

urban commuters of Bombay as a result of the withdrawal of these concessional quarterly season tickets ?

THE MINISTER OF RAILWAYS (SHRI C. M. POONACHA) : (a) Yes

(b) Up to 31st March, 1968, the charge for a quarterly season ticket was two and a half times the charge for a monthly season ticket. From 1st April, 1968, it was put up to three times the charge for a monthly season ticket. The Goregaon Pravasi Sangh requested restoration of status quo ante.

(c) Similar representations were received from other quarters. On reconsideration, it has been decided to levy for a quarterly season ticket the charge in force up to 31st March, 1968, plus three times the increase made in the charge for monthly season tickets from 1st April, 1968.

RE. PRIVILEGE MOTIONS AND CALLING ATTENTION NOTICES

MR. SPEAKER : Before I take up the other business I would like to inform the House that I have received a number of privilege motions and calling-attention notices about Professor Thacker's resignation and the conflicting statements that are coming. Since the Minister was not here—he has come today—I have admitted a calling-attention notice for tomorrow and have not taken up immediately the privilege motions. Let us hear the Minister tomorrow as to what it is about. Perhaps, he may satisfy all of you and me too.
