STATEMENT RE SUGAR SITUA-TION AND MEASURES TO DEAL WITH IT

The Minister of Food and Agriculture (Shri S. K. Patil): With your permission, Sir, I should like to make a statement on the measures which we are taking to deal with the rising prices of sugar under conditions of reduced production.

- 2. I am aware of the concern which the Hon'ble Members have expressed as regards the sugar situation through questions and through their speeches. I thought I would deal with the subject after I was fully ready to take action.
- 3. The House will recall that when we decontrolled sugar in September 1961, the only mechanism for regulating prices that was reserved to Government was through periodic releases of sugar. Since then we have endeavoured to regulate these releases broadly in such a manner as more or less to maintain the price of sugar justified by the costs of production based on the prescribed minimum price of sugarcane. I should like to tell the House that until December 1962 we succeeded in doing so because of the substantial stocks that were at
