[Shri Hari Vishnu Kamath]

issued yesterday and which we got this morning clarifies the matter no further.

Sir, you will be pleased to see that it reads here: "Bill to consolidate and amend the law relating to the office and duties of Administrator-General". We do not know whether there is such an officer and whether there will be one or many Administrators-General because, you will be pleased to see, the marginal note says "Administrators-General Bill" corrigenda which we got this morning is equally obscure. The caption is: 'Corrigenda to the Administrators-General Bill, 1962' and item 9 reads as follows. This is a funny corrigendoes not speak well of dum. It the efficiency of the printing press. It reads:

for 'Administrator-General' read 'Administrator-General'

It says: for ADMINISTRATOR-GENERAL read ADMINISTRATOR-GENERAL. Now, I would like to know what the Bill is about? That is exactly what is in the Order-paper —Administrator-General, but not in the marginal note. We want to know whether one or more than one office is going to be constituted?

Shri Bibudhendra Mishra: It is the Administrators-General Act; it is already there.

Mr. Speaker: They only want to know whether it is Administrator or Administrators-General.

point that arises at this moment. We will see what is comes to. The question is:
