MOTION UNDER RULE 292

EXTENSION OF TIME FOR DISCUSSION ON DEMANDS FOR GRANTS

Shri Hari Vishnu Kamath (Hoshangabad): Mr. Speaker, Sir, by your leave, under rule 292 of the Rules of Procedure I beg to move the following:

“That the time allotted for discussion of the Demands for Grants be extended beyond April 15, 1964.”

In commending my motion for the acceptance of the House, I wish to make a few submissions. The time as announced by the Minister of Parliamentary Affairs last Saturday expires at 17 hours tomorrow, and according to his statement, all the outstanding demands will be guillotined at 17 hours tomorrow. That means to say, that unfortunately, the Demands for Grants on account of Planning and Finance Ministry will be guillotined. I would, therefore, suggest and earnestly recommend that the time be extended beyond April 15, that is to say, the debate may be carried over to Thursday, the day after tomorrow. In doing so, I would suggest an alternative so that the business could be so revised. Friday is a day for non-official business. I plead with my colleagues on both sides of the House that the non-official business for Friday may be fixed for Wednesday next, that is, 22nd. I have consulted my hon. friend and colleague, Dr. Singhvi, whose name stands first on the list of business—non-official business—for that day. Non-official Resolutions are to be taken up on that day. He is agreeable to the proposal.

Mr. Speaker: Who is the second Member?

Shri Hari Vishnu Kamath: Shri B. P. Yadava. He is not present today. He is absent. I could not contact him. Otherwise, I would have certainly consulted him also. The corollary of this motion is that the 17 hours, whether on Wednesday or Thursday, may not be deemed to be sacrosanct, and I would suggest that even if the discussion on the Demands for Grants of the Finance and Planning Ministries comes to a close by 4 o'clock on Thursday, you will be pleased to accept the motion for application of the guillotine at 4 o'clock on Thursday, so that we could have the full 17½ hours for the Finance Bill, beginning, say, at 4 o'clock on Thursday; that is to say, five hours on Friday, and six and a half hours—at any rate not less than six hours—on Saturday—this comes to 11 hours—and five and a half hours on Tuesday. That will come to 16½ hours plus 1 hour on Thursday, i.e. 17½ hours. That is my concrete proposal. I hope you will be pleased to agree with me that this motion made by me is in consonance with the desire of the House, and that the House will accept the motion I have made.
