INDIAN TARIFF (SECOND AMENDMENT) BILL

The Minister of Commerce (Shri Manubhai Shah): I beg to move:

"That the Bill further to amend the Indian Tariff Act, 1934, be taken into consideration."

Sir, this Bill mainly seeks to amend the First Schedule to the Indian Tariff Act, 1934, in order to give effect to Government's decisions on certain recommendations of the Tariff Commission. Hon. Members will have observed from the Statement of Objects and Reasons attached to the Bill that the Bill seeks to (a) continue protection beyond 31st December, 1966 in the case of sericulture industry and (b) discontinue protection with effect from the 1st January, 1967 to (i) antimony, (ii) ACSR (Aluminium Conductor Steel Re-inforced) and AAC (All Aluminium Conductor) (iii) Cotton Textile Machinery and (iv) Piston Assembly Industries.

Copies of the Tariff Commission's reports on all these industries and of Government Resolutions issued on these reports have already been laid on the Table of the House and notes on each of these industries have also been circulated for the information of the Members of the House. The House will be able to appreciate that the policy of continuously discontinuing protection has been incorporated in this Bill. Except in one industry, the rest of the five industries are sought to be de-protected.

Sir, on 1st January, 1966, the number of protected industries stood at eight. This number includes industries on which protection is due to expire at the end of this year viz. 31st December, 1966. Protection to (i) Piston Assembly, (ii) A.C.S.R. and A.A.C., (iii) Cotton Textile Machinery and (iv) Sericulture industries is due to expire on 31st December, 1966 whereas Antimony Industry was protected upto 31st December, 1968 subject to review by the Tariff Commis-
