

Mr. Speaker: We will see when that is brought.

Shri Nambiar: That means, uncertainty prevails. That is exactly what I want to know.

Mr. Speaker: I cannot compel him now.

Shri Nambiar: After the calling attention, the country must know when the elections will be held.

Mr. Speaker: He has put the question and the answer has come.

Shri Nambiar: Let him say yes or no to the question whether there will be any extension by this House of the six-month period. Otherwise, uncertainty will prevail.

Mr. Speaker: Papers to be laid on the Table.

Shri Kachhaviya (Dewas) rose—

Mr. Speaker: His name is not there. Papers to be laid on the Table.

Shrimati Lakshmikanthamma (Khammam): I had given notice of a calling attention . . .

Mr. Speaker: Because the hon. Members on the opposition have not raised any objection to my orders today, one Congress Member stands up and complains? Papers to be laid.
