Boosting of Exports Through Inland Container Depots

*932. SHRI G. Y. KRISHNAN : Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state :

(a) whether there is any proposal under the consideration of Government to boost exports through the inland container depots (ICD) ; and

(b) if so, the details in this regard ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND IN THE DEPARTMENT OF SUPPLY (SHRI NIHAR RANJAN LASKAR) : (a) and (b) To facilitate exporters in the Inland Centres, Inland Container Depots (ICDs) have been set up on pilot Project basis by the Indian Railways at Bangalore Cantonment, Guntur/Anaparti, Coimbatore and Pragati Maidan (New Delhi). A decision has also been taken to set up an ICD at Gauhati. All the facilities that normally exist at the maritime ports, like Warehousing, Customs clearance, stuffing/destuffing, banking, services of shipping lines/steamer agents are made available at these Inland Container Depots. Inland Container Depots enable the shippers to secure the much needed facilities of direct booking of export shipments in container loads through intermodal transport. These facilities will help to promote exports.
