

[Pandit G. B. Pant]

5th April 1954 and which runs as under:

"In view of the fact that the Constitution of India has recognised Hindi as the All India national language and has fixed a period of 15 years for the transition to Hindi for official all-India purposes, it is desirable that progressive steps should be taken to make Hindi the language of examinations for the all-India Services. These steps should be so phased as not to cast any undue burden on the candidates from any part of the country where the regional language is other than Hindi. While Hindi as well as the regional languages must be given every encouragement to develop, it must be remembered that a knowledge of foreign languages, and more especially, English, will continue to be essential for persons in the higher services.

2. The Working Committee recommend that progressively examinations for the all-India Services should be held in Hindi, English and the principle regional languages, and candidates may be given the option to use any of these languages for the purpose of examinations. In the event of a candidate choosing Hindi or a regional language for the purpose of his examination, he should pass separately in English also.

All candidates who have been successful in these all-India examinations will have to pass a test in Hindi at an early stage, unless they have already taken Hindi in the examinations previously.

3. The next stage should be a continuation of option to use Hindi, English or the regional languages in these examinations in the manner stated above, but with the addition of a compulsory paper on Hindi for such candidates whose language is other than Hindi, and a compulsory paper in some other Indian language for candidates whose language is Hindi.

In both cases, English will be a compulsory subject for those who appear in the examinations in Hindi or the other regional languages.

4. In this way, Hindi should progressively replace English as the language of examinations for the all-India Services."

A detailed scheme will be prepared by Government, if necessary after consulting the Hindi Commission which is to be appointed shortly.
