

[Shri Jawaharlal Nehru]

been making a brief statement. If the hon Member had addressed any question to the Defence Minister or any other Minister they would have replied. He put it straight to me, and I had to say something. I know as much as any one else does, and therefore I replied. But, no doubt, if the Defence Minister or any other Minister knows much more—anything more—he can reply, if you, Sir, permit. (Interruption)

Mr. Deputy-Speaker: Order, order. There ought to be an end to this. We are not having any discussion on any particular subject. (Interruption) A paper has been laid on the Table of the House. It has to be studied. Enquiry was made whether hon Members will have an opportunity to discuss it or not. That is before the Government. The Government would consider whether they can find time or not. That would be considered and then that answer would be made. What is there now that can be immediately done to satisfy the hon Members? We have some other business before us, we should proceed with it. I would request hon Members to wait.

Shri Vajpayee: I must say, Sir, that this House is being kept in the dark about the new developments that are taking place. I do not know why the Government should shut out a discussion.

Shri Jawaharlal Nehru: If the hon Member has any feeling that the House is being kept in the dark, I may say straightaway that I am prepared to have any discussion at any time you, Sir, like. (Shri Braj Raj Singh: Let us have it.) If there is time

I do not want any such impression to go abroad. We have placed every single paper here except the last three or four which have come to us. After they are printed, perhaps it would be possible for us to place them before the House—of course they are being dealt with and examined at the present moment. There is no mystery or secrecy about it. But if the House wants to know what particular steps our military or Defence Forces take, that is not a matter which is normally disclosed.

Mr. Deputy-Speaker: They only want to know whether Government could find some time for a discussion.

Shri Jawaharlal Nehru: That is a question of time. It is your Committee, Sir, that judges it. I am prepared for it.

Shrimati Renu Chakravartty (Basirhat): May I just submit to the Prime Minister, Sir, that besides the treaties from 1954 onwards—I presume the hon Prime Minister will also place before the House the new documents that have arrived—we would also like to have at least in the library all the documents which have been signed between Tibet, China and India prior to the successor Government which we have inherited. We would like to study them too.

Shri Jawaharlal Nehru: I do not quite know. They would be there in the form of printed books. There is no secrecy about them. I think the library is bound to have those books.

Mr. Deputy-Speaker: Our Secretariat shall collect them all from the books and compile them into one volume—we will try to do that.
