[Shri Jawaharlal Nehru]

ed. But what is very important is the removal of a dispute over a large area, which was a matter of frequent dispute. That is a great advantage. They only main area mentioned in this, apart from Tuksergram, is the Patharia Forest, which is a forest, as its same implies. A greater part of the forest area has gone to Pakistan but one part has been kept with India.

12 Jan.

Shri Panigrahi: May I ask whether the dispute is completely settled or there are other disputes also?

Shai Jawahariai Nehru: I think it might be said that the disputes on the eastern border have been settled—the whole matter in connection with Tripura.

Shri Achar (Mangalore): Is it only a part of Tukergram or the whole of it which has been vacated?

Shri Jawahariai Nehru: Only a small part was in their possession—about 200 acres. The rest was always in our possession. They are vacating that area.

Shri Tyagi (Dehra Dun): How many square miles is the area which is now going to be passed on to Pakistan according to this agreement?

Mr. Speaker: That has been asked.

Shri Tangamani (Madurai): May I know whether the boundary has been demanded? On a previous occasion, we were told that in this area the boundary was yet to be demarcated and some miles were also given.

Mr. Speaker: He asks whether in pursuance of this agreement the boundary is being demarcated.

Shri Jawaharlal Nehru: Yes, Sir. It is going to be demarcated.
