

LOK SABHA

Saturday, 14th December, 1957.

The Lok Sabha met at Eleven of the Clock.

[MR. SPEAKER in the Chair.]

MEMBER SWORN

11 hrs.

Shri Kasilwal (Kotah): Sir, before you take up the items on the agenda, please permit me to mention a small matter. I understand that the Foreign Affairs Debate....

Mr. Speaker: Order, order please, Hon. Members cannot get up like this. What is the hurry for this?

Hon. Members who have not taken oath will now do so.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Speaker: Just now, an hon. Member wanted to raise a point.

I may inform hon. Members that it is very often embarrassing to the Chair and the House also if they should spring any surprise upon them. I am not expected to know everything that happens in the office,

- (2) Supplementary Statement No. VI
- (3) Supplementary Statement No. XIV

even if I should have myself disposed of it. Therefore, I would urge upon hon. Members that unless something happens here—somebody who is not a Member comes and sits here or some such thing—when they can say that such a thing should not have happened with respect to which no notice could be given to me previously, no hon. Member should interrupt the proceedings or refer to anything which is not on the Order Paper. Unless it is impossible for him to have given notice and it is a matter which could not brook any delay, they will write to me and tell me beforehand so that I may come ready. There is no meaning in my committing myself offhand to anything. Whatever I may say by way of ruling or some other thing will later on become a precedent
