7377 British Statutes PAUSA 2, 1882 (SAKA)
(Application to India)
Repeal Bill

Shri A. K. Sen: That is their law; it is not a law applicable to India.

Mr. Deputy-Speaker: In their own country they can pass any law they like.

Shri Tangamani: Can I transfer a property not belonging to me?

Mr. Deputy-Speaker: If we pass a piece of legislation that we would acknowledge every British subject to be an Indian citizen, how can they prevent it.

Shri A. K. Sen: The point is not the propriety of their law; the point is whether it applies here. It does not apply here. Our law is quite different. Our law is a parl'amentary law called the Indian Citizenship Act. That law applies to their own country by which they can admit any other person as a citizen. It has nothing to do with the application of British statutes in India.

Mr. Deputy-Speaker: The question is:

"That the Bill to repeal certain statutes in their application to India, as passed by Rajya Sabha, be taken into consideration."

The motion was adopted.

Mr. Deputy-Speaker: There are no amendments. I shall put all the clauses together. The question is:

"That clauses 2 and 3, the Schedule, Clause 1, the Enacting Formula and the Long Title stand part of the Bill."

The motion was adopted.

Clauses 2 and 3, the Schedule, Clause 1, the Enacting Formula and the Long Title were added to the Bill.

Shri A. K. Sen: Sir, I beg to move:

"That the Bill be passed."

Mr. Deputy-Speaker: The question is:

"That the Bill be passed."

The motion was adopted.
