Message from Rajya Sabha

Mr. Speaker: The same ruling applies to him also.

Shri Harish Chandra Mathur: have been giving such notices. Only the other day, the House discussed my motion which arose out of the subject-matter of a paper which was laid on the Table of the House, Only I wanted to have a little clarification so as to enable us to understand whether a motion need be moved or not.

Shri A. K. Sen: As I have informed some hon. Members outside, we shall be prepared to answer all Short Notice Questions relating to the coming elections, because, actually, this is really the effective session when such questions can be answered, because the next session would be too late for such things.

Very Mr. Speaker: well; hon. Members may table Short Questions during this session.

An Hon. Member: Next session also?

Mr. Speaker: There is no question of a Short Notice Question to be answered next session.

Mr. Speaker: I have to inform the House that the Business Advisory Committee met on the 1st September, 1961, to consider the allocation of time for Government business, but did not make any formal report as there was no quorum. I request hon. Members who are on the Business Advisory Committee to see that at least there is quorum for the meeting. There was, however, consensus of opinion among the Members present that the time may be allotted as follows:

- (1) The Deposit Insurance

 (Consideration and passing) 3 hours
- (2) The High Court
 Judges (Conditions of Service) Amendment
 Bill 1961 (Consideration and passing) 1 hour

I take it that the House agrees with this allocation of time.

Shri Braj Raj Singh (Firozabad): This should be circulated and we should have time to consider it. This may be taken up tomorrow.

Mr. Speaker: By which time all the Bills would have been passed? I will circulate it, but why do not the representatives of the various groups attend the meeting?

I will have it circulated and bring it up tomorrow.
