1227 Re. Motion of Privilege

guarantee that he will approve the Proclamation? Independent of the material that is contained in the Governor's report, he has to satisfy this House how it is justifiable to issue the Proclamation Therefore, this House is called upon to decide upon what the hon Home Minister says here and the facts that are placed before us The President might have made a mistake but it is for this House to find out whether it is right or wrong to approve or not to approve the Proclamation Placing the document which was before the President is not the only matter OT the matter on which this House will come to a conclusion It will be independent of that. Let us wait and see what the hon Home Minister is going to say on that day and how he is going to justify the Proclamation If the House comes to the conclusion that the material has not been placed here which can stand scrutiny, certainly this House is not going to give its approval to the Proclamation Therefore, we are not stultifying ourselves or blindly following what the President has said We are entitled to come to a different conclusion in this House, independently of what the President has come to

There is absolutely no breach from the point of view of privilege So far as haw is concerned, I am not satisfied that there is prima facie a case of breach of privilege for which I should give consent Let us proceed to the other work now
