Centre and States differences on Allocation and priorities in Plan

Written Answers

*38. SHRI C. K. CHANDRAPPAN:

SHRI VLJAY KUMAR MALHO-TRA:

Will the Minister of PLANNING be pleased to state:

- (a) is it a fact that no basic changes are likely to be made in the Sixth Plan;
- (b) is it a fact that there is a rift between the Centre and States regarding plan allocation as well as on priorities; and

(c) if so, the details thereof?

THE PRIME MINISTER (SHRI DESAI): (a) to (c) The MORARJI National Development Council, having approved the objectives enunciated in the Draft Plan (1978-83) desired the setting up of a Committee of the N.D.C. to review fiscal arrangements between the States and the Centre. A Committee of the N.D.C. deliberated upon the subject. A full meeting of the N.D.C. is scheduled to be held on February 24 and 25, 1979 to consider the outcome of these deliberations. There are no differences in the Council on plan priorities, nor on basic changes proposed to be made in the Draft Plan.

Settlement of border disputes between Maharashtra and Karnataka

*40. SHRI DAJIBA DESAI:

SHRI D. B. PATIL:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state what steps Government of India have taken or propose to take to bring round the two Chief Ministers of Maharashtra and Karnataka for the settlement of border dispute between Maharashtra and Karnatak?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI H. M. PATEL): As stated earlier, the Government has always been of the view that a really lasting solution of the dispute can emerge only through willing cooperation and consensus between the two State Governments. As such it is for the Chief Ministers of both the States to work out a mutually acceptable solution of the boundary dispute through discussions. The Central Government, if approached by the Chief Ministers for any assistance in the matter, would be glad to extend it.
