 SHRI B. K. DASCHOW-
 DHURY:

Will the Minister of WORKS, HOUSING AND SUPPLY be pleased to state:

(a) whether the revolving tower and the Restaurant in Ashoka Hotel, New Delhi have been completed; and

(b) if so, the main features thereof and how much amount has been spent on them?

THE MINISTER OF WORKS, HOUSING AND SUPPLY (SHRI JAGANATH RAO): (a) and (b). The Tower is still under construction and will consist of 15 floors starting from the basement level. The first two floors (basement and ground) will be used for storage; the next ten floors will have ten special residential suites for guests; the thirteenth floor will house the kitchen and pantry, the fourteenth floor will be used as a lounge, while on the fifteenth floor will be the restaurant. The restaurant will be 80 feet in diameter and only its outer periphery 12 feet wide having seating capacity for about 250 persons will be revolving. In the stationery portion, there will be a service cum—cashier counter, telephone booths and other service facilities. Above the stationery portion of the restaurant will be a Machine Room for the lifts and around that a promenade from which also the clients will be able to view the city all round.

About Rs. 6 lakhs have been spent on the construction so far. The cost on account of the revolving mechanism is of the order of Rs. 4 lakhs.
